

IN CONJUNCTION WITH AGC-TEXAS BUILDING BRANCH

REGISTRATION FORM

Every other year, the Texas Legislature gathers for 140 days to write the laws that affect Texas. Every other year, the Texas Chapters of the Associated General Contractors unite in Austin for one day to work with our elected officials to ensure the vitality of the building industry in Texas.

This year, we have transitioned to a Legislative Week and need your participation as we virtually meet with legislators to brief them on the state of the building industry.
We greatly appreciate your time commitment.
